Dedication

*She has traveled the road before us,
She has known each step of the way.*

With an abiding love, and a thankful awareness of all you have done for us, we, the Class of 1955, dedicate this book to you, Mildred Swick, R.N.

Florence Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug. I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

Dear Classmates,

*Before you lies
The path of life, as yet unknown,
Whether 'neath dark or smiling skies
No matter, you walk not alone.*

*For One awaits Who knows the way,
Whose Feet all paths of earth have trod.
Stay close to Him from day to day.
For they are safe who walk with God.*

Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of 1955, being of sound mind and body, leave to you, our “little sisters,” and to all who follow in the footpaths of mercy, the following:

Carol Adams: her sick leave to anyone who needs it.
Marge Bistrichan: her love (?) of night duty.
Joanne Light Brill: her piggy bank for the Pepsi Machine.
Betty Devens Carey: her skiing ability to some lonesome mermaid.
Eileen Cloney: her “doodles” for the next boring class.
Marion Hoover: her Fort Bragg address.
Lynn Jones Macgeorge: her ability to keep a secret.
Adrienne Matcham: her open invitation to Sarasota.
Faye Miller: her enthusiasm for foreign languages.
Marie Nimon: “Barren Hill” for destination unknown.
Joyce Parr: her dateless (?) nights.
Karen Havbro Satterthwaite: her expression, “whosess buzzer.”
Fran Sodoski: her deaf ear at 6 A.M.
Mary Stead: her quiet manner.
Lois Taylor: her responsibilities.
Beth Westermann: her “kiddin’ on the keys.”
Weezie Wrench: her Infectious Mono.
Betty Zimski: three inches of her height.

In addition, we wish to bequeath our memories:—Doctor Weissenberg’s “mooduls,” our love for the nutrition classes and its food tasters (namely us), the arithmetic tests we passed the first time (?) in Materia Medica, the fragrant odors coming from Chemistry lab, our “surgeon abilities” in Physiology, and our specimens for Microbiology lab. Lastly, we the Class of ’55, leave to the Class of ’56, our cherished black bands, and a wish that the black-banded caps end in the pure white crowning glory—the fulfillment of your chosen vocation.
